Closing out the 2012 slate for this season will be two of Notre Dame's top defensive commits shooting for state championsips. We will have the results of these contests on Monday for you.

2013 Commits

Isaac Rochell DE Eagle's Landing Christian:

Eagle's Landing Christian (12-1) will do after the Class A private school state championship tonight when they face-off with Prince Avenue Christian (12-2)at the Georgia Dome.

Since their opening season loss to Washington County, ELCA has won a dozen straight averaging 45 points per contest. Rochell and the defensive squad has been equally potent only surrendering eight points per game.

Their opponents, the Wolverines, have been no slouches either with an offense that averaging 34 points per game and a defense giving up only 12 points per contest.

These teams didn't play each other last season.

Alex Anzalone LB Wyomissing:

Wyomissing (15-0) will look to claim the PIAA Class AA State Championship on Saturday when they head into battle with undefeated powerhouse Aliquippa (15-0).

This should be an amazing game to witness with both high-powered offenses and immoveable defenses something will have to give, so don't blink.

Anzalone and the Spartan offense will come into the game averaging almost 41 points per contest against a Quips defense that only gives up around six points a game.

On the flipside it's almost status quo as Aliquippa's offense is putting up close to 50 points a night and Wyomissing's defense only surrenders nine points per game.

Both defenses have combined for 11 shut outs this season.

These teams didn't play each other last season.
