With National Signing Day for the Class of 2013 now behind us, Notre Dame turns its full focus to the 2014 recruiting class and so do we here at Irish Sports Daily.

Notre Dame is closing in on 100 scholarship offers already for the current junior class. The Irish have already hosted several prospects for unofficial visits and are looking at lining up more for next month's Junior Day and April's spring game.

Even before signing the 2013 class, Notre Dame was off to a great start with four commitments for 2014. A number of currently uncommitted prospects appear to be leaning toward the Irish at this early stage as well.

ISD resident expert Sean Mele has already broken down more than 25 of the top 2014 prospects in the film room and we've got information on scores of others.

As you turn your focus to 2014 along with the Irish, let us be your guide to get you started. Here is everything you need to know about the prospects on Notre Dame's board for the next cycle.
